

Artistic Living (Artistic Details in the Home)

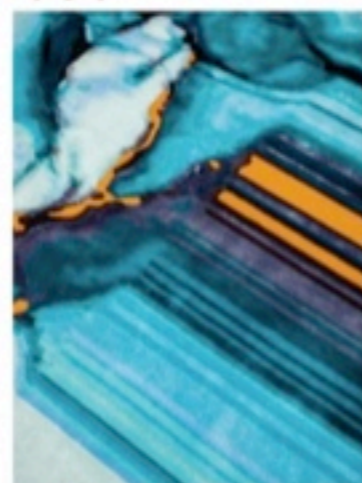

Create a space that impresses and inspires. By introducing just the right details—impactful carpets, unique art pieces, bold accents and accessories that make a statement—you can transform your home into a masterpiece that reflects your unique style and sensibilities.

CARPET COUTURE

EON I, from the recently launched Transcendent collection by Jamy Yang, is a nod to multidimensional worlds where forces transform, distort and fracture light and matter in dramatic patterns.

FLORAL ART

One of the most striking things about South Florida is the natural light and verdant gardens, which redefines tropical modern living. Indigo Hues Designs understands how floral arrangements and greenery work together to beautify your surroundings and accentuate your lifestyle. The company offers a creative approach to floral design, using one-of-a-kind premium flowers from around the globe to craft custom arrangements and "plantscapes," private and corporate events, seasonal decor installations, elegant gift baskets and more. TIPS FOR HIRING AN ART ADVISOR

Whether you're building an art collection, decorating your home or acquiring art as an investment, there are numerous benefits to hiring a knowledgeable art advisor. Here are some tips for you to consider:

- Don't be afraid to ask questions.
- Be candid about your goals, budget and timeline.
- Check that the advisor has sufficient access to gallery owners, artists and auction houses.
- When buying for investment, ensure the advisor has the proper expertise.
- Choose an advisor who understands value.
- Find an advisor who has their finger on the pulse and follows art-world trends.
- Establish that the advisor has a solid network of service providers, such as shippers, art handlers, conservators, appraisers and insurance professionals.
- Ideally, work with an advisor who is a member of the Association of Professional Art Advisors (APAA), which sets standards and has a code of ethics.
